

Pennsylvania State University The Center for Global Studies

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships for Undergraduate Students Summer 2024

The Center for Global Studies is pleased to announce the competition for FLAS Fellowships for the Pennsylvania State University. FLAS Fellowships are authorized under Title VI of the Higher Education Act and are administered by the U.S. Department of Education.

FLAS Fellowships assist undergraduate and graduate students in achieving competency in select foreign languages and to conduct research in related international and area studies. The Center for Global Studies will award five undergraduate summer fellowships. Languages eligible for FLAS Fellowships are Arabic, Chinese, Hindi, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, and Russian.

The summer FLAS Fellowships consist of an institutional payment of up to $5,000 (this amount provides funds for the recipient's tuition and fees) and a subsistence allowance of $2,500. Undergraduate awardees must be enrolled in the intermediate or advanced study of a language listed above. Academic achievement in relevant coursework (and relevant experiential learning such as an international internship, service learning, etc.) and the promise of further achievement will be the primary factors in the review of applicants.

Application Procedures

Evaluation of applications will begin on February 1, 2024, but all applications will be considered until funds are fully allocated.

Requirements:

1. The language program must consist of at least 120 contact hours of language instruction for advanced level language courses, and at least 140 contact hours of language instruction for intermediate level language courses.
2. The language program must include at least six weeks of instruction.
3. The instruction should be performance-based (i.e. for credit or certification; with testing and grading)

Application packets containing the following items should be submitted to flas@psu.edu:

- Completed and signed application form (provided on the following page)
- Curriculum Vitae or Resume
- Undergraduate transcript(s) showing GPA and list of courses completed
- A printout of courses for which you have registered for the upcoming summer session or information about the summer intensive language program you will be participating in
- Statement of Purpose – a 1-2-page, double-spaced statement describing your interest and previous experience in the proposed FLAS language, how it fits into your career plans, and your interest or previous experience in the relevant geographical area(s) where the language is used
- Two confidential recommendations, including one from a relevant language instructor, emailed directly to flas@psu.edu

Applications will be screened by a committee appointed by the FLAS Coordinator in consultation with the Director of the Center for Global Studies. The committee will have broad faculty representation across academic fields. Applicants who submit materials by February 1, 2024 will be notified of the committee's decision by March 1, 2024.
